standing. And whereas, by an Act made in this Kingdom, in the eight and twentieth year of the Reign of the late Queen Elizabeth, it was Enacted as followeth. Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted by the said Authority, that the Lord Deputy, or other Governour or Governours of this Realm for the time, shall have yearly for the provision and store of his House, of such Wines as shall be brought and conveyed by way of Merchandize into this Realm, the number of twenty Tunnes free and discharged of the Customs of Subsidy granted by this Act; And that the said Lord Deputy, or other Governour or Governours of this Realm for the time being, shall also by the said Authority, have full power to grant, limit, and appoint unto every Peer of this Realm, and to every of the Privy Council in the same, and the Queens learned Council for the time being, at his or their discretion, from time to time such portion and quantity of Wines to be free and discharged of and from the said Customs and Subsidy, as he shall think to be meet and competent for every of them after their degrees and callings to have, any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding. It is therefore hereby Enacted, that the Lord Deputy, or other chief Governour or Governours of this Realm for the time being, shall have yearly for their provision and store of his or their Houses, of such Wines as shall be brought into this Realm the number of twenty Tunnes, free and discharged of all Customs or Subsidies; And that the said Lord Deputy, or other chief Governour or Governours of this Realm for the time being, shall also by the said Authority, have full power to grant, limit, and appoint unto every of the Privy Council, and to his Majesties learned Council, and Clerk of his Majesties Privy Council of this Realm, at his or their discretion, from time to time, such portion and quantity of Wines, to be free and discharged of and from the said Customs and Subsidy, as he or they shall think fit to be met and competent for every of them after their degrees and qualities, any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided also, that this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not extend to charge any person or persons with any penalty or forfeiture for, or concerning any matter or thing done contrary to the tenour of this Act, or any part thereof, unless the party or parties offending, shall be sued and prosecuted for the same within twelve months after such matter or thing shall be done and committed as aforesaid, any thing in this Act, or any other Law, Custom, or Usage whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

And because by experience it is found, that the hindering of Merchants, Strangers, and others, from venduing his or their Goods, without offering them first to some Burghers, or Free-man of such City, Corporation, or Town, where such Merchant, Stranger, or other, do arrive with his or their Goods, (commonly known by the name of Town-bargain,) is very destructive to the Trade and Commerce of this Realm, and very prejudicial to your Majesties Revenue.

Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that from and after the said first day of December, one thousand six hundred fifty one, no such Town-bargain shall be required, nor any Merchant, or other, hindered or withheld from disposing of his or their Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, without offering them as aforesaid; But that all and every Merchant, Stranger, or other, importing any Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes from beyond the Seas, and paying all duties by Law due and payable thereupon, shall and may from time to time, and at all times at his and their will and pleasure, freely and without lett, molestation, or hinderance, sell and dispose of his or their Goods and Merchandizes any Charter, Custom, Usage, Privilege, or liberty of or unto any City or Town Corporate, at any time made, given, granted, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

And

And forasmuch as several ancient duties under the name of Town & petty Customs, due and payable by Merchants Strangers unto several Cities, and Towns Corporate of this your Majesties Realm, have been, and are demanded, received, and taken by their Farmers, Deputies, or Officers, in a far greater quantity, and proportion, then is of right belonging, in respect the same have been, and are required upon more Goods then are truly lyable thereunto, and according to the Rates after which the Customs have been from time to time increased, and paid unto your Majesty and your Royal Predecessors, which exceed far the ancient Rates according to which such petty Customs, can be required, and taken.

Be it further Enacted, and Ordained by the Authority aforesaid, that from hence forth no such petty Customs, be demanded, received or paid, for, or upon any more, or other Commodities then were chargable with the same by ancient Custom and prescription and not according to the increase of his Majesties Customs, by his Majesties Book of Rates, nor for any Wares, or Commodities, by virtue of any Grant, but such as were charged at the time of the Grant, made by your Majesties Royal predecessors of such petty Customs, unto any City or Town Corporate, nor at any other, or greater Rate or Rates, then the same were either payed, or answered by the Merchants Strangers at the time of the respective granting of the same, or as the same were taken, in the fifteenth year of the late King Henry the seventh; any Grant, Usage, or Custom to the Contrary notwithstanding, upon pain that every person, or persons, demanding, or receiving more, or greater petty Customs, then as aforesaid, shall forfeit for every such offence, double the value of what shall be exacted, or received upon more Commodities, or at greater Rates then as aforesaid; Having unto Wentworth Earl of Kildare, and the Heirs Males of the Body of Gerrard Fitz. Gerald Earl of Kildare, all such Estate, Right and Title of, in, and to the great and little Customs, Poundages, Subsidies, Duties, together with the Cocquet, and power of constituting Officers thereunto belonging there, the Ports, and Harbours, of Strangford, and Ardgals, in the County of Down, and Province of Ulster, and the Creeks and members thereunto to appertaining, as they, or any of them can or may claim, or demand, by, or under any Letters patents thereof made by King Henry the eighth unto the said Gerrard Fitz.

Gerald Earl of Kildare, as fully and amply as the same was Granted in and by such Letters patents, any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.
